

Keilim Policy Toolkit is an educational platform to provide resources to organizations. Keilim is not a legal document, and your organization needs to take into account all relevant federal, state, and local laws. Because laws vary by state and city, it is essential that you also work with an attorney to ensure that your protocols are legally compliant.

Scope of Policy

Excerpt from Pardes Institute of Jewish Studies policy:

This policy applies to all students, employer agents and employees, including supervisors and nonsupervisory employees, board members, and to non-employees in the institution (hereafter referred to as “community members”). Pardes expects all of its affiliates and constituents to uphold the dictates and the spirit of this policy, even outside the walls of Pardes.
